

The Agora of Murmurations for Future Birds

Thu – Sun
24 – 27 April 2025
Hölstein
(near Liestal/Basel Switzerland)

A Warm
Invitation to a bird-tastic and yet
un.spectacular
Fulminality!

What are you tending to?

Are you troubled by the multiple imbalances in our world? Do you hold small or big dreams and shy hopes, courageous questions and fragrant worries? Do you nurture ideas and impulses – timid, tentative whispers hovering on the edge of your awareness? If you are yearning for a space that invites experimentation, a resonant field where your thoughts and contributions are received as gifts, and where collective growth becomes possible? – Be welcome, precious kindred future-spirit!

For our next gathering, we, the Future Birds, are flying into the enchanting Holdenweid. In Hölstein near Liestal, a former psychiatric hospital has been transformed by tireless passion and unbounded creativity into a vibrant impulse center for «insights, perspectives, and outlooks that make a difference».

As Future Birds we don't need to prove to anyone that we thrive on moving forward and that more often we do this with a spirit of «galloping confidence». Yet, where hope flourishes, disappointment can sometimes cast its shadow. Where the bright promise of tomorrow can inspire us with boundless energy, the challenges of today can leave us worn out. Doubt and pain can creep in, rob us of our sleep or weaken our resilience.

That's why we need sanctuaries – spaces to play, remember, experiment, and resonate. Spaces for regeneration and nourishment, for connection and transformation. Places where we can actively and joyfully cultivate the inner and outer work required to shape our shared future. Spaces to be fully present in the NOW.

«What are you tending to?» is only at first glance an unspectacular question. However, it's a doorway to bold exploration and deep understanding. It invites us to connect with the potentialities of the present moment, to dream, to be nourished, and to co-cre:activate meaning.

This spring, on the weekend after Easter, the Agora of Murmuration for Future Birds offers such a space. A sanctuary for diving into the joy of springtime co-cre:activity, reckoning with the foreshadows of fresh beginnings, as we let go and celebrate what is gone, has passed or failed.

The power of now is the power of the present constellation

This second Agora is not afraid to dance in the «fulminality» – a playful fusion of «fulminant» and «liminality». It's the edge where the familiar begins to stumble and fresh perspectives appear. Sometimes, this space reveals itself in the mundane. At others, in the exhilaratingly bold.

But remember, it's still a dance. With rhythms, pauses, and styles. Every sound – whether a quiet solo or a wild polyphony/symphony – holds its own beauty and power.

The Agora combines curated structures with self-organized contributions (think playa/open space style). It's open to anyone who feels the call.

Will you fly with us? As a Future Bird, you'll join others in weaving «nests» rooted in the present – breeding grounds for what is yet to come.

What might emerge from these unexpected encounters? A poetry-book with artistic photographs and linked music all resulting from these days together? A journey of photographic or ethnographic discovery? A musical composition, a DJ set, or even a political initiative for ambitions yet unnamed? Perhaps simply a new insight, a moment of connection, or a truly good time. In this rich field of cross-inspiration, we'll practice the art of co-cre:activity itself. Drift through worlds of ideas crafted by others, or host a space, a question, an improvisation, or an experiment of your own. Whether small or grand, ordinary or bold – your contribution is welcome.

It's okay rather to dance

You can choose from different roles of contribution:

- as a participant, just being present
- as a contributor, offering a workshop, idea, creative piece, or artistic element
- as a project group or team, embarking on a collaborative journey

All practical details about tickets, teasers, updates on fellow participants, and a glossary of our playful word creations can be found on our website, LinkedIn, Instagram, or newsletter.

To keep our gathering cohesive, we aim for a stable flock of birds being present from Friday evening to Sunday noon. However, part-time participation is welcome too. Costs for the venue, accommodations in Holdenweid's beautiful rooms, and vegetarian/vegan meals range from CHF 285 to 465, depending on your chosen room. festivitas.space and its supporters cover all the rest.

This bird-tastic celebration will take flight April 24-27, if enough tickets are reserved by March 16, 2025.

Secure your nest and grab your ticket today!

The Agora of Murmurations for Future Birds is brought to life by festivitas.space, Oswald H. König Tafur, and Niki Wiese. Together, we design spaces for the transformation of our shared future – what we call Syner-spherics. We embrace the multilingual, the inter-modal, the trans-contextual, the regenerative, and the beautifully neurospicy as we co-cre:activate a brighter tomorrow.
